“ I went to high school with Lamarr, nobody could make you laugh harder or smile more. I can still hear his infectious laugh in my head over 10 years later. I am going to miss you so much Lammy! I'm praying for your family and friends in this difficult time but you for sure brought joy , light and laughter while you were here and I'll remember you that way!

I, Miss Wilma, will never forget that infectious smile. The family shared your prom, graduation and life achievements with me, the ever present neighbor. It was my pleasure to watch you grow into the gentleman you became. I will miss your graciousness Lamarr ❤️💔❤️
