“ With so many memories of Lamont it's difficult for me to mention just one. However, one memory that came along with all of them was his smile and delightful vibration. I once asked him if he ever got mad or upset at anything because he was always so pleasant when we were together playing music or just conversing about life. Lamont was one of the best musicians and producers that I've ever been blessed to meet and work with. I love you and will miss you my brother!

It took some time for me to write anything about my lifelong friends/brother. We grow up next door to one another. We've been friends since forever. I miss him everyday. So many times I pick up the phone to call him; then I listen to one of his voicemails. I love you big brother forever. Until we meet again with our savior Jesus Christ❤️

“ Lamont was so proud of his family. He shared stories and pictures of his kids and grandkids, his parents and grandmother. I will miss the wisdom of his advice and discussing music with him. Lamont touched many people during his life as a man of God and I am so very sorry for your loss. May the Lord comfort you in your faith through many happy memories of a life well spent.
