

Mr. Lance Melvin Hogan

March 12, 1953 - September 21, 2016

In Loving Memory Of Lance Melvin Hogan:

Lance M. Hogan was born to Melvin Ware and Willie Mae Hogan on March 12, 1953 in Detroit, Michigan. He was the youngest of six children. Lance gave his life to Christ at an early age. Lance attended Detroit Public Schools where he received his education. Lance met and fell in love with Deborah Brown in 1974 and they were united in holy matrimony on November 8, 1977. Lance worked for Detroit Lime and Carmuse Lime Stone for 30+ years where he retired on March 20, 2015. God called Lance home on Wednesday, September 21, 2016 to serve an eternal life of happiness and joy.

Lance loved life. Anytime you saw him he had a huge smile and always in a great mood. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends. His favorite thing to do was play poker and beat his wife Deborah at the game. He also enjoyed watching football and he always said the Lions was his team win or lose. Lance was a caring person to all. If you needed him, he was a phone call away and would come in a hurry. That's the type of guy he was. His spirit will live on through his family.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Lance's passing. I have worked with him for well over ten years at Carmeuse Lime until we both retired. He always seemed to make everyone's day when they would come in contact with him. He especially enjoyed when I would bring him in lunches. He was a great guy and he will be deeply missed.
