“ There are so many words I could express about my Uncle Larry-- but one of my fondest memories is when i was a child and he lived 2 blocks from us. We would have slumber parties at his house and he'd let us stay up all night. Then when it was time to go home he'd walk us down the street and carry all of our stuff. I often remember him standing "guard" as I stood on the Linwood busline (first to ride the Cheese and then the city bus for high school) early in the mornings headed to school (until i got my car) and often i would see him. He would also say to me, aint no body going mess with you, you is a Bouie kid---- and that lasted with me for ever. I can honestly say that he had a lot to do with my self esteem from all of our secret little talks standing at the corner of Linwood and Fullerton in front of the bakery---- boy does this bring back memories.

Seems like yesterday that i just saw him while celebrating Thansgiving with the family and seeing Aunt Miko & Aunt Virginia go into full nurse mode and examine him and in his famous words:

"Ill be alright....."

Love you and miss you--- Ressie Cups
