

Mr. Larry Fizer

May 30, 1955 - January 4, 2020

In Loving Memory Of;

Larry Fizer affectionately known as "P.O.P." was born on May 30, 1955. He was the fourth child of seven to the union of G.L. and the late Rosa Lee Fizer. Growing up Larry was very athletic. He attended Taylor School District where he was an active basketball player. At the age of 14, Larry joined the workforce working for Prop and Sale in Taylor, MI and a tire shop in Detroit. In 1973, Larry graduated from John F. Kennedy High School and began his career at Chrysler Trenton Engine Plant. During his time of employment Larry worked as a job setter and a machinist. Larry was very popular and made many friends. To know "Fi Dog" was to love him. Larry retired from Chrysler in 2003 after working 30 years.

On May 11, 2008, Larry married the love of his life Wilhelmenia Brantley, they were married for 44 years. Larry and his "Baybay" loved spending their free time fishing, barbecuing and supporting their families. Whenever anyone called Larry was coming. You could always catch him on our family glide. Larry accepted Christ and was baptized at Joy Road Ship of Zion in Detroit, MI.

On January 4, 2020, at approximately 9:32 a.m. after making sure he was saved and filled with the Holy Ghost Larry made his transition to be with the Lord.
