“ Uncle Larry was an inspiration to me, he reminds me of the Marvel character and leader of the X-Men. He was able to continue living a productive life and not be defined by what happened to him, but rather be defined by how he handled it, which was fulfilling God's will to not only have life, but haven't more abundantly! May his soul rest in peace, and may all that love him, do the best they can to be the best that they can, today, and always! Just like Paul, Uncle Larry fought the good fight India all that he could, may everyone who reads this be blessed as much as possible by God.

“ Uncle Larry was possibly the nicest person I've ever known. Outside of that "look" he would give to let you know he wasn't a pushover, he always had such a wonderfully kind personality and spirit about him. He never let life circumstances get him down.

“Uncle Larry". My Uncle Larry was heaven sent! He always made me feel special. He was God fearing, kind and generous to name a few of his positive characteristics. He was devoted to his family and friends. My fondest memory is when he took me and my cousins to see the Jackson 5 at the Olympia back in 1970. It was surreal! It was a thrill of a lifetime! I also remember how much Larry loved music. He had more records than anyone I knew. He always had the latest records. He always had the radio on too. He used to babysit me and my brothers when my parents went on overnight dates. The house would always be buzzing with music. Larry could dance and sing too. It was so hard to believe someone so vibrant was placed in a wheelchair after a devastating car accident but he still stood up to a new lifestyle. He inspired me to become a Rehabilitation Nurse for 38 years! Rest in peace Larry. Job well done!

“Uncle Larry, I could always depend on you for a smile and a little chuckle. Your genuine love and interest in the lives of others are small pieces of the puzzle of your magnetic makeup. Thank you for the little nuggets that you dropped years ago. Now it's time for you to rest. I love you forever...
