“ My Last Party

*When you come to my last party
Don't come with faces long,
But come with memories that are pleasant,
In your heart, let there be a song.
The place will be full of flowers,
And I will be dressed grand.
The only thing I shall be sorry for:
I will not be able to shake your hand.
When you come to my last party,
I don't know yet how soon it will be,
The daily paper will print the invitations
That everyone might see.
I am going to hold it in a church-like place,
And no one will be turned away.
At the place where I hold my party
Many of my friends will come to pray.
When you come to my last party,
We won't play any games,
But there will be a register
Where you may sign your name.
As you stand there and sing my praises
In voices so silently,
Telling each other or thinking
Of what good things you know about me.
When you come to my last party,
My Lord will host,
Because 'tis he 'mongst all my friends
Who really loves me most.
He bore my cross at Calvary.
He bears my cross today.
When you leave He will still be with me
To comfort me on my way.
When you come to my last party,*

*In spirit I'll be there,
And as you stare at me
Right back through closed eyelids
At you I'll stare.
And when you say that I look natural,
That is as it should be,
Because at my last party
Who should look more natural than me?
I did the best that I know how,
It's up to God to take care of me now.*

“ I didn't see you that often, but every time I did see you, you had a smile on your face. We loved you, but God loved you best, so he came to take you home to rest. Larry I know your smile will enlighten many in heaven, rest my cousin, rest in heavenly peace. Your present will be greatly missed. To Mama Rose, Lorraine & children, may God give you all the needed strength to carry on. Bless you all. Love you all.
