

Mrs. Laurazene Gordon

March 23, 1941 - April 28, 2015

Home Going Celebration For Laurazene Gordon:

Laurazene Green Gordon was born in Claremont, in the parish of Hanover, Jamaica on the 23rd of March 1941. Parents were Samuel and Florence Green.

Laura migrated to the states in 1981. She was married to Dazell Gordon. Three children were born of this union, Gail, Karen and Dwight.

After her migration to the states, she was gainfully employed as a caretaker, housekeeper, seamstress and baker. She enjoyed the finer things in life and worked hard to achieve those desires. She enjoyed what she did and her employers loved her because she performed her duties well and with integrity.

After Laura's first visit to Full Gospel Church, she enjoyed the fellowship. She formed an instant friendship with Lloyd Stephenson and Valerie Benett. She was a somewhat humble, peaceful person, loved by both young and old.

She sang in the choir and was very dedicated to it as well as the praise team. She rendered many solos with her angelic voice. She loved her church and contributed greatly in many ways.

Laura held a special place in her heart for her Bishop, who nurtured her even on her sick bed; and on one occasion after his prayer, as her life was slowly slipping away, she asked if church was over. She was at peace.

Her home was always warm and inviting to all who came. A table was always spread with tasty meals and delicious cakes and cornmeal puddings.

A few things that made her happy were, singing, shopping, going to the church events, cooking, just to enjoy seeing the enjoyment on the faces of others, while eating her meals. Her house was spotless and she would notice if one item in her home was moved out of place.

Family was very important to Laura. Her sister, Monica was her best friend and confidant. She loved her three children unconditionally and went above and beyond for her eight grandchildren. Her memories will be cherished by all who love her.

During her transition her love, dedication and strength in Christ inspired those who surrounded her.
