

Ms. Laurence Tiara Beanum

August 10, 1978 - October 17, 2014

Her Journey:

Laurence Tiara Beanum, affectionately known as 'Ty', was born on August 10, 1978 in Detroit, Michigan to Lawrence C. Walker, Jr., who preceded her in death and Gloria Ann Beanum.

Ty grew up always surrounded by a large extended family. Being the second oldest of five children, she represented herself as such. Even as a young girl, Ty always wanted to make the world a better place to live. She was very involved and a very bright girl who was successful at whatever she attempted. Ty was quick-witted and exerted herself on a higher level of achievement. She excelled in school and graduated from Cody High School with honors in 1996. Immediately following graduation, she attended the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor and graduated in 2001 with a B.A. in Liberal Arts. Ty loved and represented whole-heartedly as an attendee and later alumni for the 'Maize and Blue' school. She displayed a great level of dedication and was a team player, even though she was usually determined to solve problems on her own.

In 2005, Ty received a Master's degree in Social Work from Wayne State University, which initiated her career in Social Work. She enjoyed helping people and always remained positive. Ty understood early on that most things she would face were not as devastating as other people were experiencing.

Her character displayed much tenacity and was based off the wants and desires of helping others.

Ty was passionate about life and favored the Lord as being her first love. Of all of her accomplishments, the greatest one was in 2006, when she gave birth to her son, Duwan Tyrell. Ty took great care in the nurturing of her son and spent effortless hours preparing, rearing and grooming him. She was destined for him to shine as bright as she did and made preparations for him to head his accomplishments.

Ty was a hard worker but enjoyed her free time. She had passion and delight for her family and friends and loved to host and entertain. Ty will always be remembered for her positive attitude, compassion, generosity and love for life. She was not afraid to show you who was the boss and when it came to taking care of business, she did not hesitate to show leadership. Her laugh was self-defining and immensely unforgettable. When Ty smiled, it captured the pure essence of her heart, so engaging and full of compassion; you could not help but to notice.

Ty went home to the Lord on Friday, October 17, 2014 at 5:00 a.m. at Oakwood Hospital, in Dearborn, Michigan. Although she left us too soon, her warm and inviting spirit will continue to embrace our hearts and souls.

“ I will always remember hearing that glorious laugh all the way on the other side of the office. Tiara had such a beautiful spirit and presence about her. She was an absolute pleasure to work with. I, along with the rest of MAP will miss her so very much. I know that she is in a better place, smiling down on her friends and family. I don't think our office will ever be quite the same without her. We love you, Tiara. Rest in Peace. <3
