

Mrs. Lavita Shemike Kufakunoga

July 11, 1973 - January 13, 2014

Her Journey:

The Almighty God from which we came, and who unto our spirits return has called from our midst Mrs. LaVita Shemike Kufakunoga.

LaVita was born in Chester, South Carolina on July 11, 1973. She was the daughter of Doris Bland and the late Willie Price, the youngest of four children. The oldest being Lionel Bland, followed by Bruce Bland and Terance Bland. She was the beloved wife of Ahmed Adam Kufakunoga.

LaVita worked at Watson Health Care and Senior Helpers as a home health worker.

LaVita was an incredible person and loved spending time just having fun. She also loved to travel and visited her friends and family.

“ She is a dear friend (SISTER) to my biological sister. I really admired how they could keep a friendship for over 20 years. Truly a blessing indeed. May God comfort her family during her transition to a peaceful place. I hope they got Heaven Facebook accounts up there or she won't be too happy! Eternal love, peace, and joy to you Vita. Love Deb (Stacie's sister)

LaVita you were so full of life and joy. Our weekly conversations will be missed dearly. I no longer will be able to hear your infectious laugh or your wit and humor or ever hear anyone start a conversation with calling me Mike. I know you had a lot on your heart, but rest easy! Let God guide your family through this rough time. We love you and our deepest condolences to SaShea, Mrs. B and your entire family!!!
