“ My condolences to the family. Uncle Lawrence will be missed. I always admired his willingness to help others while never failing to make people laugh and smile at the same time. Rest in Peace. You all are in my prayers.

“ I have many fond memories of my uncle. To name just a few, I remember him taking me for a ride on his motorcycle, riding in his van, his piranha fish tank, and always seeing sports on his tv at his home. But most of all, I remember his overall kindness, his willingness to do anything for my family, and his craftsmanship. I will miss you in this physical realm, but you will remain alive in my heart.

“ To: My darling brother Lawrence Jr. I love you so much. We were always there for each other. I will miss your voice telling me that you love me. I will miss how you would never let me leave without your hugs. I will miss the love you always made me feel, but most of all I will miss your presence. -Your sister Denise and Dr.Hershel Jackson, and Family

I am literally in shock to hear about your brothers passing. I didn't know.. I literally just now seeing this passing by accident. As I child, I use to watch him work on his conversion van and as a adult, I watched him help your dad. From working on your dad's yard to just helping him and your mom. Thing I remember the most was that genuine smile. I will never forget that smile. My heart ❤️ goes out to you and your entire family. Much Love - Danny next door.
