“ You were an awesome father-in-law. I see so much of you in my husband. I remember when you were over to our house on New Year's Day 2013 and you went up stairs to rest a bit. I came up and asked if you needed anything. As always you said no. Then I held your hand and in that moment no words were necessary. I understood. Thank you so much for sharing yourself with me. Love you. R.I.P. Yulonda

“ There will never be a man or father as good as you. You did such a wonderful job raising me and showing me how to be a real man. You are a true example of a real man. I love you dad. I wish we had more time. There were so many things we could and should have done together.

As, I sit and ponder on the conversation that you and I had about a month ago, I remember what you said to me, like it was today, When you stated, "Johnny Ethel, if I leave this world tonight I am will be ready." Then you went on to say, Everybody else worrying about me, I will be here to some more to go before me, then you gave out that big laugh. As I told you I appreciated you looking out for my little brother, (Myles) AKA (Country). Cousin Lawrence Rest In Peace, Your work is done!!!!!! Much love!!!!!!!!!!!! Your cousin Johnny Ethel Mitchell , Edwards, MS
