

Mrs. Leath Louise McLemore

December 19, 1923 - June 17, 2015

In Loving Memory Of Leath Louise McLeMore:

Leath Louise McLeMore was born December 19, 1923 to Esmerelda Salgado in Panama City, Panama.

She received her primary education through Panama City's Public School District.

Leath's Story is amazing.

Leath came to the United States after being captured as an indentured slave in Jamaica for two years. Her mother Esmerelda hired an investigator to locate her daughter. She began her new life here in Detroit, Michigan where she remained until the Lord called her home.

Leath was employed at General Motors as a seamstress for 15 years. During that time she met the love of her life Clarence William McLeMore (June 10, 1938 - May 14, 1999). They were joined in holy matrimony on the 24th day of December in 1970. To the union no children were born, but the couple was blessed to have the pleasure of adopting Darren and Anthony Heard. Leath and Clarence raised two respectable young men.

She devoted her life to being the best mother, wife and friend she could be. Her dog German was also there as a loyal companion. She was Momma to all that she welcomed into her home. She was nurturing, caring, compassionate and would never turn her door away from anyone. She remained strong and graceful throughout all the trials and tribulations life handed her. Leath was the epitome of a strong woman.

Leath loved sports, especially football and beer. She loved to sew, cook and nurture who ever she met.

Leath buried her son Darren L. Heard on October 18, 1996 and her husband Clarence William McLeMore three years later on May 14, 1999.

We love you Momma, rest peacefully.

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Leath Louise McLemore

---

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ To the family of Mrs. McLemooe, Death is such a difficult time for the everyone. At this time please allow the God of comfort to comfort you and your family - Phil. 4:6,7

---

Mrs. Deleston - June 25, 2015 at 09:54 AM

“ During this difficult time as you surround yourself with loving family and friends also know that the God of all comfort is near and he offers peace and hope now and in the days to come. Rev 21:4

---

Ms Laverne - June 23, 2015 at 08:34 AM