“ I met Carlton as my driver for Healox as I was a patient. Being just a driver turned quickly into a strong and lasting friendship. Long conversations on many subjects were entertained on those rides to Healox. We talked about cars, our kids, more cars, life, more and more cars etc. He advised me on buying a new car and also my daughter and her hunt for a vehicle too. It amazed me that he had such patience with this 75 year old woman who had a walker and a misshapen face from cancer. This man was raised right. I had the opportunity to meet Caron and Babygirl (he always called her that) along with his dad. He met my grown daughter and my granddaughter. I'll always remember fondly his love of old time candy like Smarties and Fundips and of course I supplied him with many baggies of because my daughter loved the same candy. I hope Carlton's family fondly finds some small comfort in knowing that he touched me and my family in his own way. My sincere condolences to his family and he will never be forgotten here
