“ Uncle Lee I have no clue what I am going to without you!!! Your jokes and laughter and the way you always had something to say! You came to my graduations, birthday parties, when I brought my new home and always made sure I had a special room just for you. I will miss how you always made me drive you around when you came to visit! I will miss how you gave me advice even when I did not want it. I love you so much and I am so heartbroken! I know God has a plan and I know you are resting. Please be good up there and try not to talk about people!! :) Love you Love you Love you

“ If only I could turn my heart inside out to show you how I feel,
If only I could dial your number to talk about what is real.
If only I could open my eyes and see that winning smile,
If only you could make that trip one more time to stay a while.
If only to remember you have a new place to roam,
Resting with the Angels, Heaven is your new home.

I am going to miss our talks and you answering to the moniker I gave you, “Bishop Trouble.”

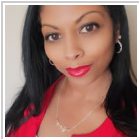

*Loving you always~your sister-in-law,

“ My uncle was the funniest person i know,He would talk about everybody. Like have you ever seen a chicken without feathers look now they just went past you.Used to ask my sister why does she walk like a duck so if you seen a duck walk you know why.I am going to really miss the one who made me laugh the most,Now that i know you are up above me the laughter will come streaming down below,All of my Gretchen King your niece. Aunt Lee my prayers are with you. From the King Family in Las Vegas

Lee Etta, Sorry to hear about the passing of your husband Lee. You're in my thoughts and prayers. I pray that God will give you peace and strength today and in the days to come and that you and your family will experience his love and peace in a greater measure. Remember that God said that He will never leave or forsake you. He will be with you always.

Sincerely, Charolette Gillam
