

Mrs. Lela Mae Brown

September 27, 1937 - January 2, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Lela Mae Brown was born to the late Altimore Sr. and Lela Harrison on September 27, 1937 in Battleboro, North Carolina. Lela did accept Christ at an early age.

Lela attended and graduated from Duquesne High School in May 1956. She participated in baseball and band while in high school. After high school, Lela was trained in Office Administration. After completing her training, she accepted her position as an Administrative Supervisor for Harper Hospital. Throughout her 44 years of working for Harper Hospital, she had the opportunity of meeting a host of coworkers that later became good friends of hers.

She was married to the late Charlie L. Brown.

Lela loved playing baseball, spending time with family, watching movies, and enjoyed a good meal. Her favorite food/restaurant was Chinese food, which she enjoyed on many occasions. She was a very nice and humble lady with a great smile. She loved taking and keeping many photos of family and friends.
