“ Mrs. Puckett I will truly miss seeing you on the porch and stopping to share lengthy talks that would last for hours. I will miss your warm spirit and the sharing of history about life and how you help prepare and sale dinners to build the original triumph church on Liddesdale street in Southwest Detroit, when it was only a basement. We shared stories of life and the community. You were a wonderful neighbor and will always remain in our hearts. With Much Love, Wanda Lowe-Anderson,
