“ I am sad beyond words to hear of the passing of Lenard. I saw him last year and he didn't mention to me that he was still fighting his illness. Lenard could talk for hours. I knew him for 24 years and I can honestly say there will never be another person like him. To his children and family I know the loss is tremendous. May God keep you all in his care.

“ Lenard is one of the reasons I believe there is a natural cure for my illnesses. He was one of the first to share with us, his brother Charles Jackson and me, his discoveries in natural healing. His courage in battle against his illness was such an inspiration to us, that we changed our lives because of it. I will always believe in natural healing, because these natural cures are from God's own living hand, I prayed that he would win his battle. He did, because he is in Glory now! I only pray that I can have the courage that he did.

Lenard was always kind and good to me whenever I saw him, and I will not forget that. A great man will be missed. May God bless and uplift you Nash family and the rest.
