

Mrs. Lenora Elizabeth Wimbley

November 16, 1955 - June 6, 2013

Lenora Elizabeth Wimbley, affectionately known as "Nonny," was born November 16, 1955 in Detroit, Michigan, to the union of Ronnie and Ophelia Terry. Her father Ronnie Terry, two brothers Kenneth Terry and John Terry, one sister Moira Terry, all preceded her in death.

Nonny attended Detroit Public Schools and was baptized in 1967 at Dexter Avenue Baptise Church. Later in life, Nonny was employed with the DPS as a noon hour aide and satellite aide at Biddle Elementary School and Jamison Elementary School, until her health no longer allowed her to work.

In 1976, Nonny met the love of her life, Thomas Wimbley and they were united in marriage in 1995. To this union was born Rayvon Wimbley and Antoinio Terry. She had a special bond and relationship with her two daughters, Tracey Dorsey and Bashara Njankwe.

Nonny loved everyone and everyone loved Nonny. To know her was to love her. Nonny had special love for her family, children (everyone's children), friends, roses, old school music, talking on the phone and her beautiful crystal collection. The greatest love was for her husband, who affectionately attended to her and was by her side as her health eventually failed.

Nonny departed this life on June 6, 2013 at Henry Ford Hospital.
