

Mrs. Leola Matthews

February 11, 1934 - April 16, 2018

Celebrating The Life And Spirit Of Leola Matthews:

On February 12, 1934 Leola, the fourth child of five was born to the late Rebecca Landrum and Edward Landrum in Detroit, Michigan.

Leola accepted Christ at an early age. She joined First Community Baptist Church, where she was baptized. She was actively involved in such activities as: the choir, Bible Study, and the role of an usher, faithfully for years.

Leola was employed with DMC Hutzel Hospital in labor delivery before her retirement of 45 years. It is unimaginable how many babies that equates to... she often prayed and talked about getting well so she could go back to work.

Leola married Leroy Hall and from this union three sons were born: Leroy Hall, Willie Hall and Edward (Eddie) Hall. Her second marriage was to Sterling Matthews and from that union Leslie Hall was born.

In her leisure time Leola shared love with family, co-workers, the Blue Monday Social Club, her church, family and the casino.
