July 3, 1926 - October 9, 2015

A Home Going Celebration For Leola Pullum:

Leola Pullum was born July 3, 1926 in a subdivision of Red Bud community in Calhoun, Georgia. She was the third child of five siblings.

Born to the late Lyman and Ceola Pullum she had one deceased sister, Ruth Curtis.

She confessed Christ at an early age, and later joined Pine Grove Baptist Church in Red Bud, Georgia.

In 1950, she moved to Detroit, Michigan where she joined First Baptist Church Southwest under the leadership of the late Rev. Nathaniel Jackson. She was very active in the choir for many years. Leola loved singing and praising the Lord. She would go all over the city singing in different programs. She also loved to cook!

Leola graduated from Michigan Barber College, where she worked for over 30 years as a barber. Her favorite saying was, "God brought me from a long way, from a cotton sack and put me into a Cadillac."

On Friday, October 9, 2015 at 10:15 a.m., where she was a resident at Lakeshore Rehabilitation Nursing Center, Leola peacefully entered a rest known no awaking except in the presence of God.
