“ Uncle Maine.... you were a constant strong male figure in this family all of my life. To say you'll be missed is such an understatement. You fought the good fight and finished your course. You were an amazing uncle. Take your rest now, we'll see you again. Love always, your oldest niece, Sheila.

“ Dad you are and amazing father and man to so many people. You gave so much of yourself to everyone. Your dedication and determination to overcome any obstacle was amazing to witness. You persevered and always kept a positive attitude in spite of difficulty. I love you forever and am proud to call you my father. You have made your transition and your work is done on this earth. Job well done!

Love always Lolita, and I will cherish the memories we created ❤️
