

Mr. Leon Wesley Martin

February 14, 1954 - April 2, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Leon Wesley Martin:

Leon Wesley Martin, affectionately called Wesley was born in Detroit, MI on Sunday, February 14, 1954, to the union of Leon Martin and the late Jewell Lee Quinney-Martin. Wesley was educated in the Detroit Public School system and graduated from Mumford High School.

Wesley was baptized at an early age at St. Augustine Episcopal Church where he served as an altar boy. He was a cub scout and a boy scout where he learned to enjoy the outdoors. Throughout his life he loved fishing and camping. Wesley also loved to play golf and won several awards playing in local tournaments. Wesley had a love for Jamaica, where some of his most fond memories were fulfilled there with family and friends. He loved to cook and was a good cook and he loved to eat. He hosted many cookouts and parties and always had a fabulous menu. He lived his life to the utmost, with charm and style. Wesley cherished his family and prided himself on engaging in family activities.

Wesley started working at an early age at Conley's Barber Shop. Then working side by side with his father in the family vending machine business where he eventually took over the business. He then began working for the City of Detroit Department of Transportation (DDOT) where he worked as a bus driver and a trolley car driver for 25 years prior to retirement. While working at DDOT, Wesley received several promotions. He was instrumental in implementing the current fare box system and traveled to other states to promote the new system.
