“ Hey Doo-Doo!!.. Hey Uncle!! I couldn't stand the name but I answered every single time.. Your laughter and your whitty comebacks were unmatched! When we talked, the stuff I couldn't wrap my head around, you help me make sense of. “ You ain't crazy, trust your instincts” you said in a time when second guessing myself came naturally.. We didn't see each other often but when we did.. You talked, I listened and Uncle, I won't forget..
Rest well Uncle. I Love You, Dara.

“ Fergie, as I called him, was a wonderful brother-in-law always. Even though we didn't communicate often, he was always in my thoughts and prayers and I loved him dearly.
I remember back in the day when I first met him... his short stature and seemingly "mean " Attitude, I thought to myself he wasn't very nice.
Understand that was just Ferg. Mostly, he was gentle and kind and loved his family. He will be missed.
Love you always Fergie,
Marsha

“ Leonard was a true friend. We met at Pershing High School and maintained a lifelong friendship. We shared many adventures that I will cherish for all time. Goodbye, my friend, we will meet again on the other side.
