

Mr. Leroy Brown, Jr.

February 26, 1965 - November 29, 2018

In Loving Memory Of Leroy Brown, Jr.:

Leroy Brown Jr. or as we affectionately knew him as “Duke” was born on February 26, 1965. He was born to Leroy Carter-Brown, Sr. and Bettie (Payne) Brown (who preceded him in death) of Detroit, Michigan.

Leroy lived his entire life in the city of Detroit and attended the Detroit Public School system. Leroy also attended the Job Corps vocational training program for welding and obtained his high school equivalency diploma.

As Leroy grew up he developed an amazing character; one that was smart, charismatic, outgoing, inspiring, along with an incredible sense of humor. Leroy could bring a smile and laughter to any and everyone he encountered. People was drawn to Leroy because of were his winning personality and infectious smile. He naturally became a talented comedian who often performed stand up comedy at local venues such as Starters Lounge and Burts Warehouse. Leroy was also a talented and established painter who was often contracted for his skills by his associates, family, and friends.

On November 29, 2018 at approximately 3:04 p.m., surrounded by his family and close friends, Leroy peacefully departed this life.
