

Mr. Leroy Darrington

March 25, 1945 - December 7, 2015

To Every Thing There Is A Season:

A Time To Be Born

Leroy Darrington was born March 25, 1945 to the late Rivers and Eleanor Darrington in Choctaw Bluff, Alabama. He was the fourth child out of thirteen children.

A Time To Build

Leroy gave his hand to the Lord at an early age and became a member of New Canaan Missionary Baptist Church of Choctaw Bluff, Alabama. Leroy left home at an early age and moved to Florida where he worked at a winery, he moved to Philadelphia and worked various jobs, later he moved to Cleveland and worked at Safe Way Tire Company. Finally he moved to Detroit and was employed at Lee Tire until he became an employee for Ford Motor Company, that he retired from. He joined Greater New St. Paul under the leadership of the late Bishop Kevin M. Early.

A Time To Rejoice

Leroy was a loving and generous man, he loved to play cards, sit on his porch and listen to his blues, riding in his car with his windows down and music loud.

A Time To Die

On December 7, 2015, the angels of the Lord summoned for Leroy's attention to come, His will was done.
