“ I will always remember Leroy as a family man who loved his children unconditionally. A complete gentleman who loved and took care of me. I know you are now resting with the Lord as you always said “I’m going to see god for myself. Love you much.

Leroy was a friend, classmate and as children we grew up worshipping God as youth in the Dolomite Church of God in Christ in AL under the leadership of Pastor Hughes 🙏

My prayers are with the family. He often called us especially when his grandson was in a football game

He was proud of his family. We had spoke on Tuesday before his death on the demised of my husband Larry which was one of his good buddies that talk often .

I am saddened to hear of the passing of this great man who meant so much my coworker & friend "Steed" as I call him. Rest and know that Our God will give us comfort and peace for our sorrows. He will never leave or forsake you. He will allow you to rest in HIM. Praying peace for you and your family. Rest Well Sir
