

Mr. Leroy Tolbert, Jr.

March 9, 1951 - February 22, 2020

In Loving Memory Of;

Leroy (Redman) Tolbert Jr. of Detroit, Michigan was born on March 9, 1951 to Leroy Sr and Lorraine Tolbert. He made his transition on February 22, 2020 at 68 years of age. He attended Detroit Public schools, graduating from South Western High School in 1969.

Leroy was a dreamer and always wanted more for himself and especially for his family. He was a people person and made a positive impression on whomever he encountered. Leroy was highly respected and a regarded member of the community. With his love of music, he excelled in playing the drums even performing once with the Artist Formally known as Prince. Leroy used this love for music to inspire him to start his entrepreneurship opening Music Tree, later Omni Trade Center, and a multitude of other successful businesses. Christmas Tree R Us was his pride and joy which he affectionally ran for 29 years.

Leroy enjoyed fast cars, lounging on his boat but most of all spending time with his family and friends. Loved ones being around him was his greatest joy. He was forthcoming with helpful advice for anyone who needed guidance. Anyone who sought advice and or guidance from Leroy garnered a wealth of knowledge; the good with the bad with his own "flavor" of wisdom. Leroy was a straight shooter who didn't mix his words.

Tribute Wall

“ I worked for Leroy in the late 1980's at the Omni Trade Center in Detroit on Livernois and Curtis. What a fun loving man. I learned so much from him during the times I worked for him and after. I was shocked when I went to the tree lot and the young man there told me he was gone. Leroy had actually told me that he was ill but I did not know how ill he was. You rest now Roy..
