“ To the Ware Family, my heart is truly broken to learn of the loss of Dad Ware. I know that he is very, very loved by his family. The feeling of losing a parent is very difficult and I am praying that you can keep the wonderful memories of him forever planted in your minds to cover the grief. A floral tribute is on the way.

Love You All,

“ To my Detroit Family: Uncle Les will be missed even though we were far apart. I'm so happy we had the time together during the 50th Wedding Anniversary of you and Aunt Charity. Ed and I still laugh at the jokes and truths that he shared, especially, when it came to uncle Cleveland. I don't know what's on the other side, so RIP in God's Garden!

“ I have so many wonderful and funny memories of my life with you. We did all we could to keep you here with us, but your body was tired. When you asked that they please make you comfortable, I knew I had to be able to let you go. From the moment you got sick, until your last breath, you told momma how you didn't know what you would do without her and as I saw her cover you to keep you warm after you passed and continued to rub your face until they took you away, I knew she wouldn't know what to do without you either. Those 53 years together displayed more love than ever between you both in your final hours. I will ALWAYS miss and love you daddy and am thankful you're in no more pain.

“ Les, I can't begin to explain the emptiness I feel with you being gone. Where do I go for all the jokes and laughter. God knew best even though it breaks my heart. A Golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest, God called your name because he only takes the best. Rest in Heavenly Peace Big Brother. Your sis, Mary R Ware Boyce

“ My Uncle knew how to tell a story and have you laughing out loud. As soon as you heard " I Clare fo God" you knew it was gonna be good. He was the go to person if you had any car question or situation. To say he will be missed is an understatement. Rest on and keep the laughter going!!!
