

Mr. Levell Rhodes Sr.

September 4, 1936 - December 25, 2016

His Journey:

Levell Rhodes was born on September 4, 1936 to the union of Andrew and Manda Frazier in Minden, Louisiana. He was the youngest of this union.

Levell was educated in Minden Public Schools system, where he graduated from Webster High School in 1954. As a child, he had a passion for playing sports such as football, basketball and track. After high school, Levell traveled and resided in Maryland for a few years.

Levell met and married Daisy Mae Thornton and they moved to Detroit in the 1960s. To this union six children were born: Barry, Phillip, Levell Jr., Shamon, Karlos and Yashica.

He was employed at Ford Motor Company Stamping Plant for 39 years before retiring in 2007.

Levell loved to barbecue every weekend while spending time with his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He also enjoyed hanging out with his longtime friends, throwing horseshoes, fishing, playing dominoes, drinking, talking and laughing.

Everyone loved Levell and enjoyed being in his presence. He was giving, honest and one of the strongest men you knew. He never showed a sign of weakness.
