

Mr. Lewis Carter, Sr

December 28, 1929 - September 15, 2017

In Remembrance of Our Beloved Father, Grandfather, and Friend Lewis Carter Sr.

Lewis Carter Sr. was born on December 28, 1929 in Hope Hull, Alabama to Robert Carter and Janie Adams.

Lewis Carter Sr. accepted Christ at an early age at Bueller Baptist Church in Hopehull, AL. Lewis Carter Sr. attended Montgomery Public School Systems and later moved to Detroit, MI and gained employment with ITT Continental Baking Company for 42 years as a Truck Driver and then with Fort Washington Garage as a parking attendant until his retirement in 1998.

While working for ITT Continental Baking Company, The National Safety Council presented Lewis Carter Sr. with the "Million Mile Club" award for outstanding performance in driving 1,000,000 miles in 125,000 hours without a preventable accident.

He was joined in holy matrimony with Emily Carter. To this union 9 children were born. He then married Sabrina Carter who preceded him in death.

Lewis Carter Sr.'s favorite hobbies were fishing, baseball and driving big semi-trucks. He enjoyed most of all wearing baseball caps, listening to music, reading his bible and eating anything sweet (sweet potatoes and vanilla ice cream).

Lewis Carter Sr. departed this life on September 15, 2017.
