

Mr. Lewis Walter Davis

June 4, 1912 - October 12, 2013

Lewis Walter Davis was born the third child of Louis Walter Davis and Alice Ramsey Davis who preceded him in death. On Saturday, October 12, 2013, the Lord decided it was time for Lewis to come home and be with him.

Lewis had five brothers and sisters: Rena, Gertrude, Conyers, Benjamin and Lois, who all preceded him in death.

Lewis truly loved the Lord and accepted Christ as his Savior.

Lewis completed his education through the Columbus, Georgia school system.

Lewis served in the United States Army from 1942 to 1946 as Private First Class. On February 2, 1946, Lewis received his honorable discharge.

Lewis loved God, he loved family, and he just loved people! Lewis was an inspiration to all he came in contact with, very compassionate with wisdom beyond imagination. It was amazing just to sit and listen to the adventures of his life. Lewis read his Bible daily and knew the Bible, like the back of his hand.

“ Uncle Bubba, I want to thank God for allowing me to be in your life! and I thank God, for you being in my life. You were such a joy, full of laughter. Thank you for sharing your life's adventure with me! I'm so glad that me and my children had the pleasure of knowing you! You will surely be missed! I know that you are up in heaven, enjoying your mom, dad, sisters, and brothers. Tell my mom, I said, "hello & I missed her dearly". Love you until we meet again!

“ Remembering the fun we use to have when, you and my daddy (Benny) use to play cards and talk about old times, how you always had a silver dollar for us when, we were children. Always a smile and a hug. Rest in Heavenly Paradise Uncle Bubba.
Love always, Your neice,
Cathy Jean (Davis).
