“ I had the honor to work with Lexa at Goodwill Detroit for many years. He was a wonderful person and great employee. He was loved by all the people we served for his caring and supportive personality. Also, he was the star of our co-ed Goodwill softball team as we went on to win a championship. He was a great man and will be missed. My condolences to his family, friends, and loved ones. Joe Evans

“ I met Page almost 60 years ago. We lived on the same block (Corbin), we all shared a brotherhood consisting of year round sports, music, swimming and seemingly endless fun. I lost a lifelong friend and the community lost a strong advocate and talented coach. My condolences to his family

“ The Franklin family sends our deepest condolences and prayers to the Page family. May he rest in peace. We shared many conversations over basketball and life. We coached together at basketball camps and he was a special guest on my live broadcast radio show here in Houston Texas. My friend will never be forgotten.
