

Mrs. Lilieth Mavalin Bowen

March 5, 1973 - January 6, 2025

On Monday, March 5, 1973, the community of Salt Spring in Montego Bay, Jamaica welcomed its newest birth. This beautiful baby girl was the 9th child of Charles Edward Green and Dorothy Gloria Haughton-Green. They named her Lilieth Mavalin Green (Marva) and referred to her as “The child of their old age” when they were only 39 and 34 years old, respectively.

At the tender age of two years and six months old, Marva started attending the Hartfield Basic School and then transitioned to Flankers All-Age School in September 1979. She was successful in the Common Entrance Examination and was awarded a place in Montego Bay’s prestigious Technical School- Herbert Morrison Technical High School.

During her five years tenure at Herbert Morrison, Marva maintained a 90 plus average in all subjects. After leaving Herbert Morrison in 1991, she attended Montego Bay Community College. She made it known that she will not be attending university, at least not yet. Her tenure was short-lived, and she gave birth to her only biological child, Sashoya Ilesha Inez Campbell (aka Danielle). Marva accepted Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized in 2010.

Marva ventured into the working world, taking up employment at Tai Flora Half Moon Hotel, Bay Telemarketing, Jamaica Dispatch, and Ajas Limited. She wasn't satisfied and wanted more, to explore more options, so she signed up for the International Hotel Programme, where she went on to work in the United States.

Eager to explore life, Marva migrated to the United States in 2015. As fate would have it, she met Daryl Stevan Bowen Sr. They became inseparable, and the lovebirds got married on April 17, 2016. The combined union produced a closely knitted family of one daughter, four sons, seven grandchildren, and a host of in-laws on both sides.

Marva was hospitalized in August of 2024. She was again hospitalized on December 4, 2024. As her condition deteriorated, Marva fought hard to cling to life with a strong determination to get better. Marva passed away on Monday, January 6, 2025, at 5:22 P.M.

She leaves to mourn: her beloved husband Daryl Stevan Bowen Sr.; children Rodney, Cardyl, Joseph, Danielle, Daryl Jr.; one brother Vandel; sisters Patricia, Beverle, Brenda, Sharon, Margaret, Annette; sister friend Mrs. Cassandra "Odette" Artwell-Brown; nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, seven grandchildren, cousins, in-laws, and friends.

We cannot all God's purpose see – but we know that all is well that's done by you.

“ My sister, husband and I met Lili because of her job. For almost 8 years she has been our family. She cared for my mom and did a great job.If I could not see mom, I could text LiLi and she would give her my message. When my sister had covid, Lili would call to check on her. My husband kevin loved talking about the lions with her. My mom gave her a poem book that she had written.We have been praying for your family and will miss Lili! We can shed tears that Marva is gone, or we can smile because Marva had truly lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that Marva is not dead - she have gone far and will return, or open our eyes and try to live on memories

Our hearts be empty because you can't see or hear from Marva, or we can fill the void that Marva left with all the precious memories.

We can turn our backs on tomorrow and focused on yesterday - the day the Marva died or we can be happy for the precious she had created and left with us to cherish.

We can always remember Marva and question why? why? why? or we can choose to remember the legacy she left us with;

We can cry and close our mind, be empty and turn our back on tomorrow because of yesterday's grief of loosing Marva, or we back or we can do what Marva would want: smile, open our eyes, love, live and cherish her memories.
