In Loving Memory Of Lillie Mae Turner:

Lillie Mae Turner was born October 14, 1944 in Highland Park, Michigan to Flossie Lee Adams and Roosevelt Harris. She was the third oldest of five children: Roosevelt Harris Jr., Frankie Harris (died in infancy), Delores Hall, and Juanita Sumter.

Lillie accepted Christ as her savior at an early age. She was baptized at First Baptist Church of Ecorse. Lillie grew up in Southwest Detroit with her family and graduated from Southwestern High School in 1962. Following high school, she attended Ferris State University. However, Lillie was unable to complete her educational journey as she made the decision to return home to care for her mother.

In college, Lillie met James Allen Carter. They were joined in holy matrimony on October 15, 1966 in Detroit, Michigan. During this time, Lillie was blessed with her first daughter Angela Toni Carter.

Lillie was an extremely hard worker. She held a successful career with Ford Motor Company as an assembler. During her employment at Ford, Lillie met her second husband Sidney Hal Turner. They married in October of 1975. This union was blessed with three children: Sydney Renee Zack, twin girls: Teresa Maria Turner, and Tracey Marie Turner (died in infancy).

Lillie was a strong woman. She enjoyed being a homemaker, nurturer, and provider for her family. She made it a point to instill the importance of family into her children. Lillie had a generous heart and was loved by so many people. She treated everyone that crossed her path with respect and compassion. Lillie took care of many young children from time to time. She made them feel as if they were her own by opening her heart and home to them. Lillie loved to cook, laugh, smile, and dance. Her favorite activities were planting flowers, going to the casino, playing with her grandbaby, and walking with her pet Chihuahua, Misty.

Lillie passed away unexpectedly, at her home, Friday, November 13, 2015 at 1:30 am.
