“ I will ALWAYS cherish the beautiful memories that I have with Ms. Arnold. She was a beautiful and kind person. She taught me so much during the time we spent with one another, whether it was with education or raising children. She was a very humble and wise woman. I will miss her dearly.

“ We never met in person, but had many pleasant conversations on the phone, sharing our similar experiences. It was another version of being pen pals. We managed a laugh together now and then, which was important in the healing process. I was so surprised and shocked to hear she passed. I'll miss our conversations! I'll still speak to her in my prayers.
