

Mrs. Linda Malone- Arnold

August 2, 1956 - January 4, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Linda Malone Arnold:

Linda Malone Arnold was born August 2, 1956 to Costello Hickson and Betty Lou Hill (who preceded her in death) in Detroit, Michigan. She was the older of two (2) children.

Linda attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Cass Technical High School. While attending high school, Linda met and later married Rodney Veal. From this union, two handsome sons were born: Rodney Jr. and Anthony Veal. Linda furthered her education by receiving her Associates Degree from Lewis College of Business.

Linda was employed with Comerica Bank since 1975 where she was a Production Support Analyst until her sudden passing. She gave 40 years of impeccable service. Through her years at Comerica, she had a special bond with a group of women known as "The Divas."

Linda later met and married Richard Malone, Jr. To that union was born her baby boy, Richard, III. As a believer in Christ, she possessed the faith and strength to raise her family.

In 1996, Linda met her best friend, Dwayne. They were inseparable! They were two peas in a pod! They married in August, 2000 and shared that bond until her sudden departure. They blended their families and gained the only daughter, Brittany and two more sons, Dwayne II and Beral Arnold. There was never a distinction about yours and mine. They were family and Linda provided a comfortable home for all.

Linda enjoyed life to the fullest. She enjoyed spending time with her kids, family, friends, and the Divas. She enjoyed traveling, partying, spending time on the boat with Darryl and Teri, and spending time in Idlewild, MI. She was the "life of the party" and that is when Linda would turn into Lolita!

On Sunday, January 4, 2015, God called for his new angel! Linda's smile, laugh, caring ways and all the love she showed will truly be missed.
