“ *Linda and I were childhood friends since we started elementary school. She was always smart in school was on honor roll many times, she was pleasant to be around and she and I was supposed to go into business in the 80's we were going to do color coordinating. That dream never materialize we were bought busy raising our families. I will missed Linda forever. Rest In Peace my dear friend. God be with her family and keep them in your will and wipe their tears away.
Love and peace to her family.*

When we were high school age. 17 I got married and she was one of my bride maids. She was so beautiful in her dress. 😭 I will miss her, even though we lost contact I just truly miss her sweetness. God bless you family. Love auntie Nettie.
