“ Some ten years ago I had the pleasure of meeting Linda despite the circumstances. She was my sister Marilyn Hornes’ best friend and was her constant companion during her treatment for cancer. Linda greeted me upon my arrival from California and was my coach and confidante as I attended to my sister’s affairs. Whether there was a need to find a Russell Street member who needed furniture or wished to purchase Marilyn’s home Linda was always there. I so appreciated her and Boh’s efforts that they became my ‘sister and brother’.

Because I am out of the country I cannot attend her going home service. However I am heartened by the thought that she and Marilyn are now reunited and singing a “All is well with my soul” duet.

“ Linda was a sweet lady and her smile would light up a room. But her voice was so awesome. Great was her faith fullness. I was truly miss seeing her at Russell Street Missionary Baptist Church. I will continue to pray for the Buford family. Love Queenie
