“ One moment here, the next you’re gone,
A sudden eclipse, dusk before dawn.
No farewell words, no last embrace,
Just memories of your radiant face.

The clock still ticks, the world moves on,
Yet in my heart, all warmth feels drawn.
Your sudden exit, hard to comprehend,
A chapter ended, without its end.

Though taken swiftly, without a sign,
Your spirit lingers, forever entwined.
In silent moments, when nights are long,
I’ll remember you, and our bond so strong.

Love Pam Jackson-Traylor

Linda the times we have shared, the laughter, the tears and all the changes life has put us through. Who am I going to be on the phone for hours at a time never running out of things to say LOL. I miss you girl so much. I am thankful that you are in Gods the arms now resting peacefully. Until we meet again Friend. Puritan/Fenkell Forever

“ To the family, for the past 20 years, I've looked forward to Diane speaking to me as only she could. I looked forward to her flowers every year. We always did small talk. God knows she will be missed and pray comfort for her children and family ...
