

Mrs. Linda K Mayberry

March 2, 1961 - February 26, 2016

Linda's Story:

Linda K. Freeny was born March 2, 1961 to the late James and Ruby Freeny. Lynn as she was known by many was a mother, proud grandmother, loving wife and domestic caregiver. As a native Detroiter, Linda was raised on the west side along with her brothers James and Larry Freeny. Linda was the baby and only girl of her two siblings.

She was the mother of three, whom she loved passionately, Antoine, Antoinette and Andre; she contended were her greatest aspiration.

An avid reader and studious competitor in academic games and gaming, Linda attended Detroit Public Schools. She completed her general education requirements and successfully obtained her GED.

Linda received many honorary achievement awards in citizenship and academic accomplishments from the Detroit Public Schools system along with course completion recognitions through the 36th District Courts.

Linda was an entrepreneur; with her charismatic charm and spirited personality throughout her career she maintained many employable positions doing manual labor, in customer service, hospitality and domestic work.

After many years of devotion and companionship Linda Freeny and Michael Mayberry united in holy matrimony. Her husband Michael preceded her in death in 2013.

Linda had a personal relationship with Christ. She was a born again Christian that had accepted Christ at an early age. She worshiped and fellowshiped with other believers at Third Hope Church periodically with periods of consistency. She was committed and a willing partaker of the gospel and continued her independent and personal growth with God on a daily basis.
