

Ms. Linda Kay Stoudamire

February 16, 1972 - December 6, 2013

Her Journey:

Linda Kay Stoudamire was the second youngest child born to the union of Lottie and Gilbert Stoudamire Sr. who preceded her in death. She was a joyous surprise because throughout the pregnancy, Lottie and Gilbert had no idea that they would be blessed with a set of twins. The “Twins”, Linda and Brenda, (who preceded her in death) were born on February 16, 1972 in Detroit, Michigan.

Linda accepted and was baptised Christ at an early age.

We affectionately referred to Linda as “Twin”, not just because she and her sister were identical but because they were inseparable. When you saw one, you saw the other. Linda was educated in the Detroit Public Schools system where she graduated from Murray Wright High School in 1991.

One of the most joyous occasions in her life was the birth of her daughter, Wynter Love Stoudamire, born February 3, 2006. Linda was a dedicated mother, who enjoyed spending time with her daughter.

Linda possessed a very big personality. She was gregarious, friendly and full of life. She was a people person who drew people to her and could strike up a conversation with anyone, anywhere. Linda had a great sense of humor and loved to laugh. She was very empathetic and was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need.

She loved her family and friends. And because she treasured the sanctity of family togetherness she could usually be found in the company of family members or calling them on the phone with an affectionate “Hey Now” just to check on them. She will be dearly missed by all who were touched by her selflessness and acts of love, whether it be in the giving of her time, or simply brightening someone’s day with a simple hello.

On Friday, December 6, 2013, Linda was called home to be with the Lord.

“ Deepest sympathy for your loss. Surely Jehovah God never intended mankind to suffer this way. May He comfort you and may you find hope in His promise to put an end to death forever. Rev 21:4

“ I remember at our graduation, one of our speakers said, look around, some of your classmates you will never see again, will be locked up or even deceased. Then, we couldn't process that, thinking we'd have a lifetime to converse or interact. Memories will last forever. My most memorable moment with the twins, is when they would often reach out in prayer for my son and I. Rather I ran into them at Target, where they both worked, or , at my son's great aunt house (their hairdresser). They would always stand in prayer for us. So with that being said. Linda you will be greatly missed and I will often pray for your daughter and the entire Stoudamire family. RIP. And embrace once again!!!

Thanks Lisa for sharing! There are so many layers and nuances in terms of how we interacted and loved the twins. Linda was so awesome, I ran into her when I was living in Detroit and she was so happy to see me...I was thrilled to see her too...

“ One of my besties in High School. She always kept me in line. She would get me straight and let me know that i need to stop the foolishness. She had my back always and beat up a guy that was messing with me...That guy did not mess with me no more either. She would always be in my heart.

“ I remember Linda and her twin sister, Brenda very well...we went to high school together and they were always privy to the gossip in our class :)! They also possessed a genuine love for each other, and extended that love to those within their friendship circle. High School would not have been the same without their presence, and it makes me sad to even know that they are no longer with us. While we have our memories, I know that their physical presence will be missed. Their family is in my prayers....

To my friend Denise in the loss of her sister,

Feel no guilt in laughter, she'd know how much you care. Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share. You can not grieve forever and she would not want you to. She'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do. So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared, The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared. Let memories surround you, a word someone may say will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day, That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here, And feels you with the feeling that she is always near. For if you keep those moments, you will never be a part, And she will live forever locked safely within your heart.
