“ I will forever cherish the fond memories of growing up together. Many of times when dad was away, he would ask Mr. Adolphus to cut our hair. We never told dad, but Mr. Adolphus gave better haircuts.

It wasn't just the haircuts that made a lasting impression on my life. Mr. Adolphus touched my life with culture and art during the most impressionable years growing-up. I can remember many of moments setting down with Kenneth going through geographic magazines and copying automotive designs, all of which contributed to the life I have today. We were more than neighbors, we were and still is, an extended family.

We are truly blessed by his life. May he rest in peace and may his works continue to live in our lives. Rev. 14:13

You are in my thoughts and prayers,
