“ I LOVE YOU SO MUCH!!! I had the privilege to meet two of God's angels and be infused by your impeccable strength. God sent you two to us in our time of need. Know that Mary's life has been a major inspiration to the entire Hunter family as well as the entire world. When we met you, your lights shined so brightly that our faith was increased tremendously to begin to see our way through this battle to destroy this enemy of God. You've got the victory, Mary's got the victory, Devon's got the victory, We've got the victory!!!! Mary, Job Well Done, God's Good and Faithful Servant! Your great assignment of love has been fulfilled. Madelin You are loved so much by our family that God allowed us to stumble across Mary's listing while looking for my father's friend, in no wise was our meeting one another a mistake. You're forever in our hearts.

“ *Tommie and Madeline:
Psalms 147:3 - He heals the brokenhearted. Lifting you up in Prayer in this time of sadness. Although you know in your heart you will see Mary again, the pain of separation may seem overwhelming right now. Please know that we understand and care and will continue to uphold you in prayer until He Who loves you best heals your heart and restores your joy. Praying for you!###imported-begin###Frank and Dee Flowers###imported-end##*

“ As a volunteer trying to give to others Mary touched us more than anything we could have given. Listening to her sing or just seeing how much fun she has playing really filled my heart. A small person for short time meant a great deal to my life. The Lord will truly hold her in the palm of His hand! Watch over us and love your new home!###imported-begin##Mickey Barrett###imported-end##

“ I met Mary twice while volunteering at Penrickton w/Ford Motor Co. She came running up to me and sang the "Little Muffin Man" and then took my hand and showed me all her toys. We were there to make her smile but she made us smile and won our hearts! I will always remember her and know that God has taken her home where she now will sing w/the angels.##imported-begin##Mary Barrett##imported-end##

“ Reading the entries already posted to this visitation book, there seems to be two main themes. Mary's singing & the joy it brought to everyone and that we know she is with God right now. Mary has gone on to join a greater choir but if we take a minute to be quiet and remember, Mary's songs can still bring joy to our hearts. Madeline & Tommy please know that your little girl was a blessing to all those that knew her. She will be truly missed.##imported-begin##Michele Price (Penrickton)##imported-end##

“ Madeline, Tommy and Sam.
My heart breaks for you. Mary will be so missed. What an angel she was to all of us at Penrickton. Mary Could always brighten my day with her beautiful smile and bubbly personality. I can only think that Mary will be a a delight in Heaven for her Father. My thoughts and love are with you now. God Bless.

“ Mary you brought so much sunshine and joy to Penrickton Center. The way you did that little hiccup when you sang "Have you seen the muffin man" and how you greeted everyone who came into the playroom with "how are you today?" will always be in my heart.
