

Mrs. Lois Smith

November 25, 1930 - May 25, 2021

In Loving Memory Of:

Mrs. Lois Murray Smith was born on November 25, 1930 in Wyn, Arkansas to proud parents, Ross and Blanche Dew Murray. She was the youngest of three girls.

Her parents relocated from Arkansas to Sikeston, Missouri where she spent her formative years. Lois would later move to Omaha, Nebraska and then on to Detroit, Michigan in the early 1950s. It was in Detroit that Lois would meet and soon marry the love of her life, James A. Smith. They raised three wonderful children together- a set of twin sons and a daughter.

Lois accepted Christ as a young married woman and was baptized by Bro. Orum L. Trone at the Joseph Campau Church of Christ in Detroit. Lois maintained a strong Christian faith throughout her lifetime and as a result of her faith, she participated in the Timothy Dorcas Group, the Ladies Bible Class and was a member of the Kitchen Ministry.

Lois enjoyed being a devoted wife and mother. She found a calling in providing baby-sitting services and taking care of the children of her family and friends. Lois also helped to raise her two granddaughters, Latonia and Latasha. Her favorite pastimes were fishing, which she loved, along with singing, bowling, and planting both vegetable and flower gardens. She had a great eye for fashion, loved to dress and enjoyed sewing and embroidery. Those who knew her would describe her as quiet, caring and compassionate and her children would add that she was a disciplinarian who was quick with a switch when they misbehaved. Above, all she was known for her beautiful and unforgettable smile.

After spending most of their lives in Detroit, Lois and her husband James, relocated to Douglasville Georgia in 2013 to live with their daughter, Alesia. Sister Smith passed into eternity on Tuesday, May 25th at Pruitt Health in Fairburn, Georgia.
