Celebrating The Life Of Lonnie Coleman, Jr.:

Lonnie Coleman Jr. was born on January 7, 1931 in Beckley, West Virginia to the union of the late Lonnie Coleman Sr. and Katherine Smith-Seay, their only child.

Lonnie accepted Christ at an early age. He attended Beckley Public Schools, Stratton High School and he was on the football team and an amateur boxer.

After high school, Lonnie enlisted in the Marine Corps and was in the Korean War. After the war, Lonnie moved to Detroit, Michigan and worked in the factory. He worked for Guardian Glass until they went out of business. He then became a custodian for New Mount Zion Baptist Church until retirement in 2003.

He was joined in holy matrimony to Eva Thurmand for 44 years. To this union four children were born, Lonita, Lonnie II, Ricardo and Vanessa.

He enjoyed spending time with family, grandchildren and going on vacation. He was a devoted, loving, caring father who would do anything for his children. He also enjoyed watching television, especially sports. He loved sitting on his front porch, going for walks on the block and talking to his neighbors.
