“ Dear Family,

Our China put up a good fight, but she grew tired and was ready to join our Father who knows best. It's a somber time for us all, yet a time for us to think selflessly. China is resting without difficulties. Tee prepared us mentally for life's joys, down falls, and she also prepared us for her passing.

I'm thankful to Tee for the one-on-one counselings; the words of encouragement; and most of all, the warm "Hello" at the beginning of a phone call and a heartfelt "I love you" at the end.

Until we meet her again, let's remain thankful for our China.
