

Mr. Lorenzo Lamar Odom-Burton

August 8, 1988 - September 19, 2013

Corporal Lorenzo Lamar Odom-Burton was born August 8, 1988 in Detroit, Michigan. He was welcomed into the family as the son of Lily L. Burton, who preceded him in death; and was the middle child of her three sons.

At an early age, Lorenzo professed his love for Christ and was baptized as a member of St. Phillips Baptist Church in Detroit.

Lorenzo was educated through the Southfield Public School System, graduating from Southfield Lathrup High School in 2006. He enjoyed and excelled in mixed martial arts, drawing, video gaming, playing baseball and spending time with family and his fiance, Tiffany.

Lorenzo served his country with distinction in the United States Marine Corps and dutifully acquired the ranking of Corporal. He was stationed in North Carolina and deployed to Japan and other countries throughout his active duty.

Lorenzo had just finished his military enlistment when God called him home on Thursday, September 19, 2013 at McClaren Oakland Hospital of Pontiac.

“ I am deeply sorry for the loss of your loved one Lorenzo. God did not create mankind to die. God made provisions by sending his Son as a ransom sacrifice for those who have faith in him. Those who put faith in him might gain everlasting life. John 3:36 mentions "he who exercise faith in the son has everlasting life." May Jehovah comfort your family during this difficult time.

“ Word can't express how my heart is feeling. You always had a place in my heart you were my baby my little friend. Too soon life is over, and because we don't know when and where we should be ready. Your mother and my mother is waiting to welcome you home. Forever in the arm of God
