

Mrs. Loretta Antony Marie Moseley

April 25, 1935 - May 9, 2013

Celebrating the life of Loretta Moseley.

Mrs. Loretta Marie Owens Moseley was born on April 25, 1935 in Casscae, Arkansas to Lester Garnet Owens and Essie Bell Paul.

In 1937 Loretta's grandfather John Paul moved the entire family to Detroit, Michigan. Loretta was raised in a loving and Christian environment. Loretta grew up in the neighborhood historically known as "Black Bottom." Loretta graduated from Northern High School and was affectionately known as "Red" by her relatives and friends.

Robert Moseley met and fell in love with Loretta and nicknamed her "Lo." They were united in holy matrimony on August 17, 1967. Together they raised five children: Robert, Yolanda, Melody (Maia), Tony and Derrick. Loretta was a strong, affectionate, loving person. She was full of grace, mercy and love opening her home up to many, something she learned while living with her grandparents John Paul and Mary Bradford Paul. Loretta was truly the backbone of her family.

Loretta loved and always supported her children and grandchildren. She valued family, enjoyed planning family gatherings, interior decorating, and gardening; she had a flare for fashion. In her leisure time she also enjoyed traveling and playing cards.

God opened his arms and received his precious servant on May 9, 2013. Loretta was preceded in death by her husband Robert Moseley; father Lester Owens; mother Essie Upshaw and brothers Larry Paul, Cedric Paul and Ruben Upshaw.

Anthony and Family,

My deepest sympathy for the passing of Mrs. Loretta Moseley. She will be greatly missed, but will live in your hearts forever. May all of the good times you enjoyed in the past help you through your time of sorrow. None of those past moments were in vain. Embrace this time with crying, laughter and reflections. This moment is as important as all of the passed moments. Love - Glenda Walker, USMS, C/CA
