Upon graduation she worked as an Assistant Social Worker for the Department of Social Services. Loretta cherished her only child, Kamal, which she dedicated her love and time to. Kamal was a devoted son whose main priority was making sure his mom was well cared for.

Loretta was affectionately known as "Mrs. Steve Harvey". She could watch The Family Feud Game Show for hours. She also enjoyed watching her favorite soap opera with her mother, Inez. As a fond memory, Loretta, two of her brothers, and her grandfather would share one birthday party in the month of March. Inez would prepare a feast for the special occasion, while Loretta was known for her special birthday cake. She was a loving daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. With a loving spirit also came a little sassiness. Loretta was not afraid to express herself; always letting you know how she felt. Her favorite saying was, "NO WAY".
